Jeff Cowton is Curator and Head of Learning at the Wordsworth Trust, Grasmere, England. The Trust cares for Dove Cottage, the home of William Wordsworth and his sister Dorothy from 1799-1808. Whilst living at Dove Cottage, Wordsworth wrote much of his best and well known poetry, and Dorothy kept her famous Grasmere journal. Jeff is responsible for overseeing the development and care of the Trust's collection of manuscripts, books and fine art, and for developing programmes of learning for a wide range of people at home and abroad. In particular, he leads the Trust's programme of workshops and courses for university students worldwide. In 2010, Jeff was awarded Membership of the British Empire for services to museums.
