

Challenges of Peace Process in Afghanistan

Speaker : Dr. Talatbek Masadykov

Visiting Professor, Tokyo University
Former Political Director, the UN Assistance Mission in Afghanistan

Moderator : Yasuhiro Ueki

Professor, Sophia University
Member, Sophia Institute of International Relations

Discussant : Daisaku Higashi

Associate Professor, Tokyo University

Talatbek Masadykov

Date & time: February 15 (Mon), 18:00-19:30

Venue: Sophia Institute of International Relations

Bldg No.13, 1st Floor, Room 103,
Sophia University Yotsuya Campus

Yasuhiro Ueki

Pre-registration required:

Please write to: iir-ofc@sophia.ac.jp with your name, affiliation and e-mail address and note in the subject line "2/15 Talk on Afghanistan".

Anyone is welcome. The session will be in English.

Daisaku Higashi

Dr. Talatbek Masadykov 's Profile

Dr. Masadykov is currently a Visiting Professor at Tokyo University. He worked for the UN Assistance Mission in Afghanistan (UNAMA) for more than 12 years, stationing in Kandahar, Gardez and Kabul, and was the Political Director of the Mission until 2014. He is familiar with the peace process in Afghanistan and the negotiations with the Taliban.

